Dears;

I am eager to introduce myself as a candidate for the position of a Laravel Team leader.

I am a graduate of Cairo University with B.sc from faculty of Computer and information. I have completed 10 years working at great companies and freelancer, which has further sharpened my skills and qualifications.

My interest combined with my educational background provided me with a solid foundation to establish a career in software development.

Kindly find herewith attached my CV. I would very much appreciate an opportunity for a personal interview with you to discuss my application further.

Sincerely,

Abdelrahman Eid.
